Most leaders spend too much time being a conduit for God's gifts and don't take time to enjoy being a recipient of them. But you are not simply God's employee, you are God's child and God has given you gifts for you to enjoy, not pass on to others.

- 1) Make sure each column has a range of options that take from a few minutes to several days and from no cost to a lot of money.
- 2) The secret to this list is 3 fold: Getting very concrete about what is life giving to you, intentionally calendaring time and planning. Thanking God/worshipping God when you participate in anything on this list.

What has God given that you love? Nothing is too trivial or too extravagant. Make your list.
